

Pears' Soap

Whoever wants soft hands, smooth hands, white hands, or a clear complexion, he and she can have both; that is, if the skin is naturally transparent; unless occupation prevents.

The color you want to avoid comes probably neither of nature or work, but of habit.

Either you do not wash effectually, or you wash too effectually; you do not get the skin open and clean, or you hurt it.

Remedy.—Use Pears' Soap, no matter how much; but a little is enough if you use it often.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

TERRELL'S OPINION OF THE PEOPLE.

The Houston Post reprints the clause in Terrell's speech questioning the ability of the people to select men capable of coping with the railroads on account of the corrupt influences, he fears, will prevail, and criticises as follows:

"Thus talked Senator A. W. Terrell at Georgetown about the Texas state Democracy in convention assembled and about the capacity of the people of Texas for self government. The people, in his opinion, can be corrupted, the convention of the Democracy, which has given to Texas the bright galaxy of virtue and statesmanship, whose administrations reflected honor on its progress as a state, can not be trusted, in his opinion. Governors, heads of its finance, its land department, custodians of its millions of money, guardians of the education of its masses, its law office charged with the protection of its legal rights, its judiciary whose name has never been tainted or reproached. These have all, according to this cynical sneerer at those who have ranked among the noblest and best of its chief executives been given the seal of party confidence by Democratic representatives, incapable of resisting corrupting influences whenever exposed to them. Such a convention cannot be trusted to nominate a railway commission. The masses 'have no personal knowledge of the peculiar fitness of candidates.' On one hand the people, on the other we behold millions of money interested in electing peons to serve its interests."

This to the men and the children of the men who, amid the perils of revolution and shock of civil strife, have never cringed to power or accepted ease and safety by the sacrifices of honor and independence."

The editor of the Belton Journal has submitted the case of the Journal vs. Belton Reporter to the editor of the New York Sun and has obtained a decision in his favor. This ought to settle it. It is hoped the angel of peace will hover over the sanctum sanctorum of each of our esteemed Belton contemporaries now that Dana has spoken.

The Denison Herald says: "Mr. Chilton, borrowing an idea from Othello, says: 'I have done the state some service, and they know it.' That's true, Chilton is not a bad man. He has brought no discredit upon Texas. But he should hereafter be careful who he plays marbles with."

The Marlin Ball says: "The people had a regular hog-killing time in 1890 and have been feasting on back-bone. Now they want brains." Clark can supply the want, and give us all the back-bone needed too. Clark's back-bone, however, doesn't reach to the top of his head.

Sam Jones attacks George Clark at Brenham and scoffs at the slogan, "Turn Texas Loose." It is not likely that Sam will subscribe to the slogan of Hogg "tie up the calamity howlers," or to that of Fulton, "give Texas a rest."

For governor: Chairman Reagan. Platform: I want you to quit.

Judge Clark's Appointments.

The following appointments have been made by Judge Clark when he will speak on political issues:

McKinney, Saturday, March 26th.
Jewett, Wednesday, March 30.
Palestine, Thursday, March 31.
Rusk, Saturday, April 2.
Henderson, Monday, April 4.
Atlanta, Wednesday, April 6.
Texarkana, Thursday, April 7.
Terrell, Friday, April 8.
Dallas, Saturday, April 9.
Hillsboro, Wednesday, April 13.
Waxahachie, Thursday, April 14.
Corsicana, Saturday, April 16.

Other appointments will be announced from time to time. Gov. Hogg is invited to be present at any appointment and participate on equal terms.

The return of Chilton to Tyler as a private citizen was celebrated in grand style. The Tyler people will have an opportunity to confer a similar honor upon Governor Hogg in January 1893.

Judge Gerald speaks at the court house tomorrow night. It will be his opening speech as a candidate for congress. It is not necessary for The News to state that it will be interesting.

Chairman Reagan threatens to resign his office and take the stump for Hogg—or a dark horse. Thus do the mutterings of the approaching campaign portend blood. Now is the time to subscribe.

The Pulpit and the Stage

Rev. F. M. Shrou, Pastor United Brethren church, Blue Moon, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 20 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at W. B. Morrison & Co.
